

Competition!

What does childminding (or your childminder) mean to you?

To take part in the competition, we'd love for you to create something that tells us what you think about childminding - or your childminder - in your own unique way!

-  Budding artist? Maybe you could draw or paint a picture to enter
-  Love to build? Create a masterpiece from Lego, recycled or household materials
-  Is writing your thing? You could write a poem or story about your childminder
-  Keen baker? Try baking and decorating a cake with all the things that make being with your childminder so special
-  Do you shine in front of the camera? You could come up with a dance or vlog telling us what's so brilliant about your childminder

Age Categories

- Under 5 Years
- 5 – 7 Years
- 8 Years +

How to Enter

To be in with a chance of winning the competition, please send a photo or video of your creations, along with the child's first name and age to us by Friday 22 August and if your design wins – you'll receive a special birthday gift from us!

 Email entries to: marketing@childminding.org

 Deadline: Friday 22 August

[Please ensure you have parental permission to share any photos or videos with us, including permission to post on SCMA social media channels.]

Inspiration

I love going to my childminder because...

- I can play with my best friends
- My childminder makes learning fun!
- They always have the best snacks!
- We go on fun adventures together
- They read my favourite stories!
- I feel safe and happy there
